

Industrial Roller Mesh Door

Our Industrial roller mesh doors are suitable for openings up to 6m X 6m. The doors are suitable for internal or external installation in factories, warehouses, food processing facilities in fact anywhere where ventilation is required whilst the exclusion of insects and birds is a necessity.

Mesh Roller Door Features:

- Helps prevent insects, birds and other pests entering the building, whilst allowing ventilation in.
- Polyester PVC coated mesh which is rot proof, tear and flame resistant. Various colours are available.
- 3 phase door motor or chain drive options.
- Multi-functional control panel with powered option.
- Galvanised cowling for external protection.
- Optical safety edge and magic eye to prevent door closure when the opening is obstructed.
- Choice of actuation devices, including, push button, induction loop, radar, remote control and photo cell.
- Air permeability up to 45% (fly mesh 25%)
- Interchange solid and mesh panels, winter/summer.

